Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

S.R.O. 289/IOFS/AM(3), dated 28th September, 1959.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following amendments to the Indian Ordnance Factories Service Class I Recruitment Rules, published under SRO 208, dated the 5th June 1954, namely:—

AMENDMENTS

In the said rules—

1. for the words 'under training' and 'period of training', wherever occurring, the words 'on probation' and 'period of probation' shall respectively be substituted;
2. in rule 3—
 - (a) in clause (iii), the word 'and' shall be added at the end;
 - (b) after clause (iii), the following clause shall be added, namely:—
“(iv) by ad hoc selection in accordance with Part V of these rules”; and
 - (c) the note shall be omitted;
3. in rule 4—
 - (i) in clause (a) for the words 'In making such promotions' the words 'In making promotions' shall be substituted,
 - (ii) for clause (c), the following clause shall be substituted, namely,
“(c) the other grades mentioned in Appendix VI will be filled by promotion or transfer (wide Part III of these rules), failing which by recruitment in accordance with Part V of these rules”;
4. for rule 11, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—
 - (1) A candidate must be either
 - (a) a citizen of India; or
 - (b) a subject of Sikkim; or
 - (c) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India; or
 - (d) a subject of Nepal, or of the State of Pondicherry or of a Portuguese possession in India.
 - (2) The appointment of candidates in categories (c) and (d) of sub-rule (1) will be subject to the issue of certificates of eligibility in their favour by the Central Govt. Provided that no such certificate will be necessary in the case of the following candidates, namely:—
 - (i) persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the 19th July 1948, and have ordinarily been residing in India since then;

(ii) persons who migrated to India from Pakistan after the 18th July 1948 but before the 30th September 1948 and have got themselves registered as citizens of India;

(iii) persons who entered service under the Government of India before the 26th January 1950, and who have continued without any break in such service since then:

Provided further that a candidate, in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary, may be admitted to the examination and may, also, be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being eventually issued in his favour by Government.

(3) A certificate of eligibility in respect of a candidate belonging to category (c) of sub-rule (1) shall remain valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment, beyond which he shall not be retained in service unless he becomes a citizen of India.";

5. in rule 12,

(a) the note shall be omitted; and the rule shall be renumbered as sub-rule (1) thereof; and

(b) after the sub-rule (1) as renumbered, the following sub-rule shall be added, namely:—

"(2) The upper age limits prescribed in sub-rule (1) shall not be relaxed except in the following cases, and to the extent specified therein, namely:—

(i) upto a maximum of 5 years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;

(ii) upto a maximum of 3 years, if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan or from the unliberated areas of Jammu and Kashmir and has not already appeared at 5 previous examinations or, in the case of those employed at the Ordnance Factories, at 8 previous examinations;

(iii) upto a maximum of 8 years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan or from the unliberated areas of Jammu and Kashmir, and has not already appeared at 10 previous examinations or, in the case of those employed at the Ordnance Factories, at 13 previous examinations;

(iv) upto a maximum of 3 years, if a candidate is a resident of the State of Pondicherry and has been receiving his education through the medium of French; and

(v) upto a maximum of 4 years, if a candidate belongs to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.";

6. for rule 22, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"22(a) Selected candidates shall be appointed as Assistant Works Manager on probation. The normal period of probation shall be two years in the case of non-technical Assistant Works Managers and three years in the case of Technical Assistant Works Managers. Government may, however, reduce or extend the period of probation as considered necessary.

(b) An Assistant Works Manager on probation shall undergo such practical training as shall be prescribed by Government and may be required to pass such departmental and language tests as Government may prescribe. The language test will include a test in Hindi.

(c) On the conclusion of his period of probation, Government will confirm the officer in his appointment. If, however, during or at the end of the period of probation his work or conduct is, in the opinion of the Government, found unsatisfactory, Government may either discharge him or extend his period of probation for such period as Government may think fit provided that before orders of discharge are passed, the officer shall be apprised by competent authority of the grounds in which it is proposed to discharge him and be given an opportunity to show cause against it.

(d) If the power to make appointments in the service is delegated by Government to any officer, that officer may exercise any of the powers of the Government under this rule.";

7. for rule 29, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"29 (1) A candidate must be either

- (a) a citizen of India; or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim; or
- (c) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India; or
- (d) a subject of Nepal, or of the State of Pondicherry or of a Portuguese possession in India.

(2) The appointment of candidates in categories (c) and (d) of sub-rule (1) will be subject to the issue of certificates of eligibility in their favour by the Central Government:

Provided that no such certificate will be necessary in the case of the following candidates, namely:—

- (i) persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the 19th July 1948, and have ordinarily been residing in India since then;
- (ii) persons who migrated to India from Pakistan after the 18th July 1948 but before the 30th September 1948 and have got themselves registered as citizens of India;
- (iii) persons who entered service under the Government of India before the 26th January 1950, and who have continued without any break in such service since then:

Provided further that a candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary, may be selected and may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being eventually issued in his favour by Government.

(3) A certificate of eligibility in respect of a candidate belonging to category (c) of sub-rule (1) shall remain valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment, beyond which he shall not be retained in service unless he becomes a citizen of India.";

8. for the existing NOTE under rule 30 the following paragraph shall be substituted, namely:—

"The upper age limit will be relaxable in the following cases, namely:—

- (i) upto a maximum of 5 years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;
- (ii) upto a maximum of 3 years, if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan or from the unliberated areas of Jammu and Kashmir;
- (iii) upto a maximum of 8 years, if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan or from the unliberated areas of Jammu and Kashmir;
- (iv) upto a maximum of 3 years, if a candidate is a resident of the State of Pondicherry and has been receiving his education through the medium of French;
- (v) upto a maximum of 4 years, if a candidate belongs to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands; or
- (vi) upto three years by the Commission, if, in the opinion of the Commission, exceptional circumstances of the case so warrant";

9. In rule 31, for the words "For Metallurgists" occurring for the first time, the words "For Chemists" shall be substituted.

10. In rule 36—

(i) for clause (c), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(c) On the conclusion of his period of probation, Government will confirm the officer in his appointment. If, however, during or at the end of the period of probation his work or conduct is, in the opinion of Government, found unsatisfactory, Government may either discharge him or extend his period of probation for such period as Government may think fit provided that before orders of discharge are passed, the officer shall be apprised by the competent authority of the grounds on which it is proposed to discharge him and given an opportunity to show cause against it."

(ii) clause (d) shall be omitted, and clause (e) shall be renumbered as clause (d);

11. after rule 36, the following part shall be inserted, namely —

"PART V

37 Recruitment by ad hoc selection where considered necessary to the posts mentioned in column 1 of Appendix VI shall be made by the Commission by open advertisement subject, in the grade of Assistant Works Manager to the percentages for promotion/transfer and direct recruitment as laid down in rule 4" and
